

TYBA Coaching Center

Rajasthan CET General English Chapter 1 Mock Test Series

Total Questions: 15 MCQs | Marks: 30

Time Allowed: 20 Minutes | Negative Marking: 1/3 Mark

Section 1: Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs)

- Q1. Choose the appropriate article: "He is _____ honorable member of the legislative assembly."
(A) a (B) an (C) the (D) no article
- Q2. In the sentence "He has a unique collection of antique coins", which article correctly precedes 'unique'?
(A) an (B) a (C) the (D) both a and an
- Q3. Identify the part of speech of the underlined word: "He treated the stranger in a cowardly manner."
(A) Adverb (B) Adjective (C) Verb (D) Noun
- Q4. Which of the following prefixes can be added to 'moral' to indicate complete lack of moral sense?
(A) Im- (B) Un- (C) A- (D) Dis-
- Q5. Choose the correct suffix to convert the verb 'Decide' into a noun:
(A) -ment (B) -sion (C) -ation (D) -ance

Section 2: Official Answer Key & Step-by-Step Solutions

| Question | Key           | Detailed Technical Explanation                                                                         |
|----------|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Q1       | (B) an        | 'Honorable' begins with a silent 'h' followed by the vowel sound /ɒ/. Therefore, 'an' is required.     |
| Q2       | (B) a         | 'Unique' begins with the consonantal semi-vowel sound /ju:/. Therefore, 'a' is strictly correct.       |
| Q3       | (B) Adjective | 'Cowardly' modifies the noun 'manner'. Noun + 'ly' forms an adjective (e.g. friend + ly, king + ly).   |
| Q4       | (C) A-        | 'Amoral' denotes being unconcerned with moral standards, distinct from 'immoral' (violating morality). |
| Q5       | (B) -sion     | Decide → Decision (the terminal 'de' shifts to 'sion' to form the abstract noun).                      |